Focus on Campaign Contributions to
Members of Congress Who Voted to Overturn the 2020 Election

On January 6, 2021, Congress was scheduled to formally certify the results of the 2020 presidential election. But based on spurious allegations of voter fraud, 147 Republican members of the Senate and the House of Representatives voted to object to either the results in Arizona or Pennsylvania or both.<sup>1</sup>

In this election cycle, individuals and entities associated with the financial sector reported making $4,971,464 in contributions to the 8 Republican Senators and $38,512,126 to the 139 House members who voted to overturn the election (as reported by February 17, 2021), for a total of $43,483,590.

A recurring contributor to this group of members is the American Bankers Association, which appears at or near the top of the lists of top givers (see lists below) of 13 members of the House and one senator. The ABA was the top corporate PAC contributing to the 147 members, for a total of \$1.3 million, or about 26 percent of the financial sector's total.<sup>2</sup>
